

Life in a Big City

There is a saying,

“God made the country and man made the town.”

This saying brings out the difference between village life and city life. Life in a village is simple and close to nature. In the city, life is fast and artificial. City life is full of charms, comforts and opportunities. There is opportunity for every kind of person in a big city.

"All great art is born of metropolis."

A big city has high standard of education. There are many schools, colleges and universities in a big city. Students can get quality education in a big city. Even the poor students can get education according to their needs. It is said that “Knowledge is power.”

City life has proved this quote quite true. It's because in big cities we can get every type of education. There are engineering universities, medical colleges and technical institutes in a big city. Everyone can learn new skills in a fun and easy way.

City life has proved this quote quite true. It's because in big cities we can get every type of education. There are engineering universities, medical colleges and technical institutes in a big city. Everyone can learn new skills in a fun and easy way.

Medical facilities in big cities are worth mentioning. There are big hospital and clinics in a big city. These hospitals are equipped with modern technology and machines. There are ambulances available in big cities in case of emergency.

Specialized doctors are available in big cities for many diseases.

There are big markets with beautiful furnished shops in a big city. A person can purchase everything according to his own needs. There is everything available at a reasonable price. We can purchase everything if we have money in our pockets. There are large malls and shopping centres waiting for people to come and buy luxury items for the comfort of their life.

“The seeds of civilization are in every culture but it's the city life that brings them to fruition.”

There is a great opportunity for job seeking young people in big cities. Many multi national and international companies announce jobs now and then which is a great sign for young people to work with them. Young people can work with these companies and earn their livelihood. Business opportunities are also available in big cities as there is a large number of people in big cities. So there is high percentage of making a business successful. Everyone can start his own business in big cities. By starting our own business, we can not only flourish and grow our business but we can also create many job opportunities for many other people.

“The city is not a concrete jungle, it is a human zoo.”

Professional growth and personal growth can be done in an easy way in big cities than in small villages and towns. In big cities, there are institutes offering courses for personal growth. One can attend these courses in order to improve his personality. Moreover, in big cities there are ways to communicate with other people. When a person meets with other people, his self confidence increases and he feels more comfortable and pleasure.

There are big restuarants in big cities for food, We can eat our tasty and delicious dishes. In big cities, there is also facility of home delivery. We can order our food online at our doorsteps. Every kind of dish is available in big cities.

Traffic system is very attractive in big cities. There are large and vast roads. Road signs and signals are fixed at every few kilometers.

No doubt city life is full of beautiful buildings, great malls, delicious foods and hustle and bustle but there are some disadvantages of city life. There is lack of natural beauty in city life. No doubt, there are parks and grounds avaiable in big cities but something is missing which is available only in village life. In big cities, one can't watch the shining stars at night. He can not see the endless light of moon. He can not delicious foods and hustle and bustle but there are some disadvantages of city life. There is lack of natural beauty in city life. No doubt, there are parks and grounds avaiable in big cities but something is missing which is available only in village life. In big cities, one can't watch the shining stars at night. He can not see the endless light of moon. He can not listen the chirping and sweet sounds of birds. He can not enjoy the endless beauty of nature at morning.

“City is a place where you find everything except the love of nature.”

In cities, there is pollution due to large number of factories and mills. The smoke of vehicles make the atmosphere dirty and unhealthy in cities. Moreover, the population of cities is increasing very rapidly due to which people are forced to live in small houses.

“A city is a large community where people are lonesome together.”

In big cities, everyone is busy in his life. He has nothing to do with other people's life. He just remains ever busy in earning his livelihood. He works from dawn to evening in order to improve his lifestyle. Even he has not enough time for his own family.

“In cities no one is quiet but many are lonely.”

Although city life has some disadvantages but we can say that city life is full of great charms, comforts and opportunities.

“Man's course begins in a garden, but it ends in a city.”